

Penny Dolls and $10 Dolls.

Little china affairs almost microscopic in size, and proudly attired damsels resplendent in all the glory of exquisite costumes. We didn't get these here in America for we have not learned the deftness which centuries of training have given French and German fingers. These pretty little replicas of beauty grew to life under the nimble hands of Neuremberg artisans and chattering Parisian girls. We imported 'em. Brought 'em on direct from the place of their making. Dressed dolls and undressed dolls of every sort and character and size. Jointed, kid body and rag. More than any of the stores can show you—at less than any of the stores will sell you.

TRIAL POSTPONED UNTIL MONDAY NEXT

CASE OF THE GOLDBERG BOYS

Plans of the defense—relatives of prisoners in Court—plea withdrawn.

The trial of the Goldberg boys, Charles and Isadore, who are accused of robbing Toppan's store about three weeks ago, which was set for today in Criminal Court No. 2, was at the suggestion of Assistant District Attorney Shillington postponed until Monday next.

As soon as the case was called, Howell Tring, who appeared for the prisoners, withdrew the plea of not guilty entered for Charles Goldberg, and announced that he was ready for trial in case against Isadore. He stated that he expected to prove that Isadore was not in Washington at the time the robbery was committed.

Charles Goldberg's wife, a very handsome little woman, about eighteen years of age, was present in court during the proceedings, as well as his father and other relatives who had come from their home in Winston, N. C. Goldberg, who is not more than twenty years of age, felt his disgrace deeply and for the most of the time wept bitterly. His brother, Isadore, however, did not seem to appreciate the unfortunate position in which he was, and at all appearances paid little or no attention to what was going on around him.

Mr. Charles Goldberg, the father of the two boys, when questioned as to what he knew of the case said that his son Charles left Winston, N. C., on November 22 with the avowed purpose of going to New York city to visit his grandfather, who carries on a clothing business in Becker Street, and that Isadore left Winston the next day, Thanksgiving Day.

Alfred Butler, alias Tuttle, colored, who is also charged with being a party to the robbery of Toppan's store, was also in court, but played no part in the proceedings.

CITY BREVITIES.

The quarterly meeting of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity will be held at the residence of Dr. Lark (Glazebrook, No. 202 P Street northwest. The meeting will be one of great importance, as delegates to the national convention to be held in New Orleans, during the latter part of this month, will be elected and the presence of all the members is respectfully requested.

The most successful dance in the history of the Saturday Evening Assembly was given Saturday night at Carroll Institute Hall. Half a hundred couples had gathered in the parlors adjoining the ballroom when the orchestra commenced to play the opening bars of the first dance, and they were soon on the floor treading the whirling mazes of the waltz. The arrangements were perfect and everything moved so smoothly when the signal was given to begin that it seemed as though it was the dress rehearsal of a society play. Manager Goodwin and his assistants came in for a great deal of the praise for the success of the affair, and everyone present made a request for tickets to the next dance, which will be given December 21.

The concert given under the auspices of Haley's Concert Band, assisted by the Philharmonic Club and Quartet, at the Columbia Theater last night attracted an immense audience, which was very enthusiastic, especially when the patriotic selections were rendered. The vocal numbers came in for a large share of the applause and were of the highest order of excellence. Miss Blanche E. Muir displayed her excellent contralto voice to advantage in Tennyson's beautiful "Dying Rose," and gave several encores. Miss Muir is considered one of the best contraltos in the city, her voice being of great depth and having a large range. There is also a peculiar expression to her music that is not heard in any other contralto and it greatly enhances the feeling of the work of the composer.

Centennial of Her Birth.
The celebration Saturday of the centennial of Mrs. Eliza Hopkins Dashiell brought together four generations of one family from this and other cities. The unique celebration took place at the home of one of Mrs. Dashiell's children, Mrs. George T. Raub, 187 M Street northwest. In addition to Mrs. Raub, the three other surviving children were present. They are Mr. J. M. Dashiell, of Salisbury, Wicomico County, Md., and Mrs. Caroline Blackiston and Mrs. E. E. Hopkins, both of this city. Mrs. Eliza Hopkins Dashiell, in whose honor the gathering took place, was born in Baltimore, December 10, 1798. When about ten years old she moved to what is now Wicomico County, Md., but was the daughter of Somerset County. She was married when about nineteen years of age, and at thirty-two was left a widow with seven children. Soon after her husband's death she came to Georgetown, and in Georgetown and Washington her life has been spent since then. Her health is perfect, and she is still enjoying the use of all her faculties. Of Mrs. Dashiell's own family there are now living four children, ten grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

The republic will be represented in this way for the first time, and it is expected that exhibits from the Hawaiian Islands, Alaska, Porto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines will be shown.

CURRENT EVENTS IN GEORGETOWN SYSTEM OF STREET SWEEPING

Western High School Annual—Death of Miss Turkenton—Other Items of Interest.

Despite the strenuous objections of the citizens, the street cleaning department continues to sweep the streets in this section of the city during the daytime. The practice is generally condemned. At this season of the year the water which is used to settle the dust freezes almost immediately, rendering the streets somewhat dangerous. It is almost impossible for horses to keep on their feet, and a number of serious accidents resulting in the permanent disabling of several valuable animals have occurred. Bicyclists find it exceedingly dangerous to ride over the pavements after the sprinkling cart has gotten in its work. It has never been the custom before this year to clean the streets during the busy hours of the day.

The citizens have already sent one petition to the Commissioners asking that a return be made to the old practice of cleaning the streets during the night when traffic is suspended. This petition has as yet produced no material result. Complaint is also made to the effect that the sweepings from the machines are sometimes left on the street, and when they are collected are not cleanly taken up, leaving nearly as much dirt as before.

The officials of the Georgetown and Tenleytown Railroad Company, represented by their vice president, after a consultation with the officers of the Columbia Athletic Club, have agreed to repair all the damage sustained by the club at its clubhouse some weeks ago through the runaway car accident. The first estimate amounted to $1,000. Three of the finest boats having been totally destroyed and a number of shells belonging to individuals having sustained more or less injury. The front of the clubhouse was also crushed in and the floor demolished in places. The railroad officials have finally decided to take the matter of replacement in their own hands and will repair all damage done to the satisfaction of the officers of the club.

Such enthusiasm is shown by the graduates of the Western High School in the formation of an Alumni Association.

A second meeting of the officers of the various graduating classes of the school was held at the Franklin School Saturday morning to take steps looking to the formation of a permanent organization. The meeting was largely attended and the arrangements for the preliminary steps of the formation were made. Duncan Bradley, the chairman of the organization, appointed a committee consisting of John Lacy, chairman, and Misses L. Lacy, Perry and McKee to make arrangements for a mass meeting of the graduates of the school to be held January 3, at the Western High School building. Provision was made for the adoption of a constitution and the election of officers.

The Georgetown College fence on the Prospect-street side was considerably damaged by fire on Saturday. It is supposed that the fire originated by the throwing of a blazing stick among the dry leaves lying near the fence.

Miss Annie Hamilton, the daughter of Edward Turkenton, died at the home of her parents, 1313 Thirty-third Street, at an early hour yesterday morning, after a short illness. The deceased was well known among the younger people of Georgetown, and enjoyed a large circle of friends. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock from Trinity Church. Father Scanlon will officiate.

James E. Shanks, who has been ill for some weeks, is reported to have had a turn for the worse.

William T. Whelan has accepted a position with the gas company and has entered upon the discharge of his duties.

Miss Annie Hamilton, who will be professor at the Prospect-street school next Thursday, will assume the name of Sister Angelica.

Mercer Duval, a son of Al Duval, the janitor of the Curtis School Building, who has been critically ill with fever and who was on the road to recovery, has had a relapse, and small hope is now entertained for his recovery.

Frank Gray on Saturday sold to Frankie A. Hager house No. 222 P Street. The lot is 25 feet by 120 feet.

Mrs. Raymond Collins, wife of the son of late W. R. Collins, for many years city editor of the Saturday Review, died on Saturday last. Mrs. Collins leaves four small children.

IN THE NATURE OF A SOCIAL GATHERING

Special Meeting of the Washington Business Men's Association to be Held Tonight.

A special meeting of the Business Men's Association will be held this evening at Villard's Hall at 8 o'clock. The meeting is called for the purpose of introducing the new members of the association to their associates, and is more in the nature of a social gathering than a business meeting.

There will be some business transacted, however, and the officers of the association earnestly request that every member be present. Cards have been sent to all members with the special request that an effort be made to have their friends attend.

Invitation cards can be secured by calling on the secretary, as the supply is practically unlimited. After the business of the meeting is concluded a buffet lunch will be served, and the remainder of the time spent in social intercourse.

Two records of large deals in real estate in the northwest section of the city were filed today. The first, a deed from John G. Moore, conveying to Elverson R. Chapman, of New York, two lots on P Street, near Dupont Circle, part of lot No. 15, square 66, on Massachusetts Avenue and R Street, and the other a deed from Chapman to Mary Scott Townsend, conveying a lot on Massachusetts Avenue near Florida Avenue, in consideration of the sum of $13,250. THE RAIDING OF THE HOTEL SLATER

THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S ACTION Refuses to Hold Witnesses—Officer Lewis Insists on Prosecution. The Proprietor's Statement.

The case against the proprietor of the Hotel Slater, which was raided last night by Special Officer Lewis did not come up for trial today. District Attorney Pugh declined to hold the five men summoned as Government witnesses as they denied all knowledge of the sale or purchase of liquors at the Hotel Slater on Sunday. Lewis insisted on having a warrant issued against Harry Hughes, manager of the house, and the case will probably come up tomorrow.

Mr. Henry Hughes, the proprietor of the Hotel Slater, said today: "Yesterday Lewis came to my house, and I requested him to settle an account which he owed me for board. At this he became very angry, and declared that he would get even with me. He was also in a very intoxicated condition. I have been conducting business here for years, and this is the first complaint that has been made against me, as I have always observed the law in every respect."

The guests of the hotel who were arrested are very indignant at their treatment. One of them said: "I see that Lewis claims to have taken drinks with us yesterday. To my personal knowledge, Lewis came here drunk, but secured nothing at the house. We were arrested for standing in the lobby."

Mr. Hughes and his guests are pressed to make it lively for Lewis.

Memorial to Frances Willard.
It has been decided by the trustees of the Chicago Temple to make that institution a memorial to the life and work of the late Miss Frances Willard. As a means to this end, Willard memorial circles will be formed all over the country to raise sufficient money to enable the Temple trustees to buy all the outstanding stock and bonds held by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union Building Association.

Two Pointed Questions Answered.
What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you cannot get a better price for it?
Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy of the better, so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best?
If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public will very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some fashionable novelty put forth with exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
